

Assignment 3

Q1)

This week, we carried out ^{the first step of} a two-step community support activity. First, we gathered 9th and 10th grade textbooks along with essential stationery items by collecting them from within our homes and local communities. After organizing these materials, we prepared them to be sent to Khabaib in the coming week. This activity aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, specifically SDG 4 (Quality Education) and 10 (Reduced Inequality) by contributing to providing educational resources to children in need. We carried out this task on Khabaib Foundation's request, and will continue to work with them for the duration of the ~~se~~ project.

Q2)

A critical incident I experienced recently was a discussion I had with my father, who ~~used to~~ comes from a lower class family in the underdeveloped areas of Karachi. Currently he holds a Ph.D and is an esteemed government officer. The discussion was centered around the struggles he experienced to get where he is, the actions of certain people that gives him a leg-up, along with other contributing factors. This incident was thought-provoking for me as I realized that deeply realized how important it is to eradicate poverty ^(SDG 1) in the world, ^{and} the raw ~~are~~ hidden talent locked behind tuition fees can be allowed to shine forward.
