Text

There has been much debate about the reasons for the industrial revolution happening in the eighteenth century Britain, rather than in France, or Germany.

Paraphrasing

Why the industrial revolution occurred in Britain in the eighteenth century, instead of on the continent, has been the subject of considerable discussion.

Sample Paragraph

[1] Language is the main means of communication between peoples. [2] But so many different languages have developed that language has often been a barrier rather than an aid to understanding among peoples. [3] For many years, people have dreamed of setting up an international universal language which all people could speak and understand. [4] The arguments in favor of a universal language are simple and obvious. [5] If everyone spoke the same tongue, cultural and economic ties might be much closer, and good will might increase.

Paraphrase

[1] Humans communicate through language. [2] As there are so many different languages, therefore, people around the world have a difficult time understanding one another, [3] Some people have wished for a universal international language that speakers all over the world. [4] Their reasons are straightforward and clear. [5] A universal language would build cultural and economic bonds. [6] It would also create better feelings among countries.

Paraphrasing Exercise

1. The student requested that the professor excuse her absence, but the professor refused.
2. International Center is hosting English Conversation classes. They help non-native speakers of English practice their English speaking skills.
3. The car that was pulled over by the police officer yesterday just had an accident. That driver is not careful.
4. Of the more than 1000 bicycling deaths each year, three-fourths are caused by head injuries. Half of those killed are school-age children. One study concluded that wearing a bike helmet can reduce the risk of head injury by 85 percent. In an accident, a bike helmet absorbs the shock and cushions the head. From "Bike Helmets: Unused Lifesavers," Consumer Reports (May 1990): 348.

Paraphrasing Exercise- Possible Answers

1. The professor denied the student's request for an excused absence.
2. English non-native speakers can improve their English by taking classes at International Center
3. The careless driver who was pulled over yesterday just got into an accident.
4. The use of a helmet is the key to reducing bicycling fatalities, which are due to head injuries 75% of the time. By cushioning the head upon impact, a helmet can reduce accidental injury by as much as 85%, saving the lives of hundreds of victims annually, half of whom are school children ("Bike Helmets" 348).

Paraphrasing Example

The original passage: Students frequently overuse direct quotation in taking notes, and as a result they overuse quotations in the final [research] paper. Probably only about 10% of your final manuscript should appear as directly quoted matter. Therefore, you should strive to limit the amount of exact transcribing of source materials while taking notes. Lester, James D. Writing Research Papers. 2nd ed. (1976): 46-47.

A plagiarized version: Students often use too many direct quotations when they take notes, resulting in too many of them in the final research paper. In fact, probably only about 10% of the final copy should consist of directly quoted material. So it is important to limit the amount of source material copied while taking notes.

A legitimate paraphrase: In research papers students often quote excessively, failing to keep quoted material down to a desirable level. Since the problem usually originates during note taking, it is essential to minimize the material recorded verbatim (Lester 46-47).

An acceptable summary: Students should take just a few notes in direct quotation from sources to help minimize the amount of quoted material in a research paper (Lester 46-47).

Practice 2

Humans first appeared on earth a million and a half years ago. He was little more than an animal then. Still, early humans had some advantages over animals. He had a large brain, an erect body with fast-moving hands. He invented a language to communicate with his colleagues.

This ability to speak was of the highest value because it allowed men to share ideas and plan together: speech enabled the transmission of ideas from generation to generation. These special advantages put humans far ahead of all other living creatures. Since that distant time, when he first made his appearance, man has achieved a lot. (110 words)
